Welcome messages

On behalf of the Board of Surf Life Saving NSW, I would like to welcome you to the 2023 NSW Surf Life Saving Championships, proudly supported by Your local club.

We're excited to be back for a second attempt on the Northern beaches. Last year, a series of unfortunate events including wild weather, hazardous surf and the need for our fantastic volunteers to head north to assist with flood relief, saw the event cancelled on its third day.

This is always a very special time of year, and we can't wait to present the pinnacle of our Surf Sports calendar in such an iconic location.

The coming 12 days of competition at Freshwater SLSC, Queenscliff SLSC and North Steyne SLSC will see over 21,000 competitors, spectators and volunteer officials descend on the region over the next three weeks.

It will be fantastic to see our best surf sports athletes, from the young to the young at heart, fiercely contest the full range of events, from swim, ski, board and ironperson racing, through to beach sprints, flags, relays and surfboats.

We thank the clubs, Northern Beaches Council, and our fantastic sponsors for making this possible and look forward to an exciting few weeks.

Of course, a great thanks also goes out to our volunteers. They are a crucial factor in the smooth running of our surf sports events, and we thank all those involved.

Finally, Surf Life Saving NSW acknowledges that the NSW Championships will this year be held on Guringai Country, home of the Garigal or Caregal people - the traditional, Indigenous custodians of the land. We pay our respects to elders' past, present and emerging.

George Shales OAM
SLSNSW President

Queenscliff SLSC is pleased and excited to once again host the 2023 NSW Surf Life Saving Championships. On behalf of the board and all the members of our club I would like to extend a warm welcome to all competitors, officials, and supporters to our beautiful part of the world.

Last year was a disappointment for everyone due to the terrible weather conditions. It was such a shame because we were not able to showcase our beautiful clubhouse and beach and allow you to enjoy the wonderful things the Manly area has to offer. I am an optimist. This year will be different. The sun will be shining, the beach and surf conditions will be ideal for competitors and spectators. You will have the opportunity to enjoy all that Sydney and our area has to offer.

We are looking forward to seeing the stretch of beach from Queenscliff to Manly coming alive with all that the State Championship has to offer...with lots of fierce competition, lots of amazing feats of lifesaving skills by the young and old, and most of all sharing with you all in the experience of surf sports.

Our aim is for everyone to have an enjoyable experience where you make new friends, rekindle your friendship with mates from other clubs and leave with positive memories. Join us in our club and enjoy our hospitality, tell some stories, old and new and have a laugh.

I would like to thank all our members who have volunteered to help host this event. It's a huge task and every one of them is determined to make this championship the best ever.

I also wish to thank the support of the wider community, Surf Life Saving NSW, our co-hosts North Steyne SLSC and FreshwaterSLSC, Northern Beaches Council, ClubsNSW, our club sponsors and the rest of our event partners and suppliers.

Finally, I would like to wish everyone good luck. Strive hard, do your best and have fun.

Garry Fox
Queenscliff SLSC President

Welcome messages continued

Welcome to the Northern Beaches. It's a privilege to host the Surf Life Saving Championships on North Steyne, Queenscliff and Freshwater beaches.

I want to acknowledge the hard work and bravery of our surf clubs and members in all they do to keep us safe. Thank you to all volunteers for the service you provide.

In addition to lifesaving duties, our surf clubs serve as community hubs, providing a place to gather and connect. The people that make up the clubs are great mentors and teachers to members, particularly to our young people. Thank you to all the clubs and people that provide this service.

While on the Northern Beaches, I encourage you to get out, relax, and explore. Beyond our 21 beaches, we have great options to help fill your days.

We've got many bush tracks, walking trails, mountain bike tracks, and shared paths to keep you active. Kids love our playgrounds; many are inclusive and accessible.

Try snorkelling in Cabbage Tree Bay to meet underwater wildlife or look out for an echidna or bandicoot while enjoying a bushwalk on our many tracks.

We also have excellent cafes and restaurants, plenty of shopping and a boutique brewery scene.

And, if you're looking for a bit of culture, visit our Manly Art Gallery & Museum or catch a show at the Glen Street Theatre.

You're sure to have a memorable time here.

Check out hellomanly.com.au and northernbeaches.nsw.gov.au to plan your stay.

Best of luck to all competitors! Thanks for visiting.

Michael Regan
Mayor, Northern Beaches Council

It's that time of year when the incredible volunteer Surf Lifesavers from clubs across the state compete at the annual NSW Surf Life Saving Championships.

This year's event returns to the picturesque Northern Beaches of Sydney and ClubsNSW is once again incredibly proud to sponsor this special event program under the banner of Your local club.

Surf lifesavers are an invaluable resource keeping our beaches safe each summer and there is no better way to see them in action.

The Members of the Freshwater Surf Life Saving Club are again pleased to assist the Queenscliff Surf Club and Surf Life Saving NSW to host the 2023 State Championships.

The Freshwater club will again host the NSW State First Aid Championships, Patrol Competition, Champion Lifesaver and both the Youth and Open R&R Championships. Working alongside the Queenscliff and North Steyne clubs as well as the Northern Beaches Council has been a united and collaborative process that will deliver an outstanding event for the competitors.

Our Events Manager Richard Hawtin and his team of volunteers have again this year spent weeks preparing for these events and importantly making sure that everyone that comes to Freshwater is made to feel very welcome.

These Championships will attract thousands of competitors and spectators to the Sydney Northern Beaches and on behalf of all the Freshwater members we extend a warm welcome to our special part of NSW.

I want to also extend a special thanks to the Freshwater Sponsors, the senior council staff and Lifeguards at Northern Beaches Council and the Freshwater Chamber all of whom have assisted the Freshwater club prepare to host these Championships.

It's also important to recognise the many Surf Sports Officials and workforce volunteers that will work behind the scenes day after day to ensure the success of this event. So take the time to thank them for their tireless commitment.

On behalf of the Freshwater members, we hope that all competitors enjoy these Championships, we wish you every success and hope that you enjoy your stay here on the Northern Beaches.

Michael Bate
Freshwater SLSC President

Welcome back to Manly and North Steyne Beach for the 2023 NSW Surf Life Saving Championships! We hope the weather gods are much kinder this year and that the sun shines on all the competitors. North Steyne SLSC is proud to be part of the Championships once again. Our members welcome the many competitors, officials, families and friends from around NSW who have made an effort to be here and have travelled from both near and far. We certainly hope you feel right at home.

For 116 years, North Steyne SLSC has been proudly serving the community and keeping people safe on our beach. We have a proud history as one of the oldest surf lifesaving clubs in Australia, and our traditions continue through the dedication and vigilance of our great volunteer members. Stop by and say hello and learn more about our Club and meet some of the awesome people who make North Steyne so special.

It is an enormous effort to put on these Championships and stage such a high-quality competition. I would like to acknowledge all the work of Surf Life Saving NSW, fellow hosts Queenscliff SLSC and Freshwater SLSC, the Sydney Northern Beaches Council and the support of Surf Life Saving Sydney Northern Beaches Branch. I would also like to thank all the members from North Steyne, Queenscliff and other clubs who are volunteering to ensure the smooth running of the event.

Thank you also to all the terrific sponsors who make these Championships possible. Not only are you sponsoring a great event, but you are making the surf lifesaving movement even stronger through your support.

Wishing all the teams much success and best of luck to all the competitors for a safe, enjoyable and fun 2023 NSW Surf Life Saving Championships!

Christine Gibbs Stewart
North Steyne SLSC President

Doug Hawkins

NEW LIFE MEMBER

Sydney Branch Life Member and Coogee SLSC all-rounder, Doug Hawkins is the latest volunteer to be awarded Surf Life Saving NSW Life Membership following the organisation's Annual General Meeting on 11 November.

Doug's time in Surf Life Saving began at the turn of the century and has continued without pause and with purpose for 22 years.

He revolutionised the Nippers program at club level and across the state and has played a major role in the recruitment and retention of junior lifesavers during his time.

Indeed, a tangible outcome of his youth engagement program, the 'Coogee Blueys' – designed to build more defined connections and establish an identity for young people within the club – has seen Coogee's patrol teams burgeon to the point that now two in every five patrolling members are under 18.

Doug is an active and passionate trainer, assessor and facilitator at club and branch level, and has held down a multitude of important roles including Youth Director, and Vice President of Coogee SLSC.

"In a sense of the SLSNSW values, we say we're creating great Australians and building better communities," he said.

"When your Nipper program is strong, then that's exactly what you're doing.

"I think that's why it's been such a big focus for me. More than 27,000 Nippers across the state, which is 40,000 parents – that's an enormous number of people that we influence and share our values with.

"If even some of them walk away wanting to be a part of it, then we've done our job.

"Where else can we do something like that? Influencing young people in such a way, working with people from all different walks of life, using your own skills to make a difference."

Like most, Doug doesn't do what he does and wait for the recognition. That said, Life Membership of SLSNSW represents two decades of work that mattered.

"It means a lot. I think it's a weird thing to say but to have the work recognised to me means the work has been positive and has made a difference, and that to me is the biggest win"

"To know things have been beneficial to people, that the work has been proactive and productive, it's nice to sit back and see that.

"It's not about the recognition, though. I come back for the people. To see the joy on the kids' faces in Under 9s and they finally got out the back of the surf for the first time, and the joy on a new junior lifesaver's face in their patrol uniform for the first time, or the Bronzies when they complete their course.

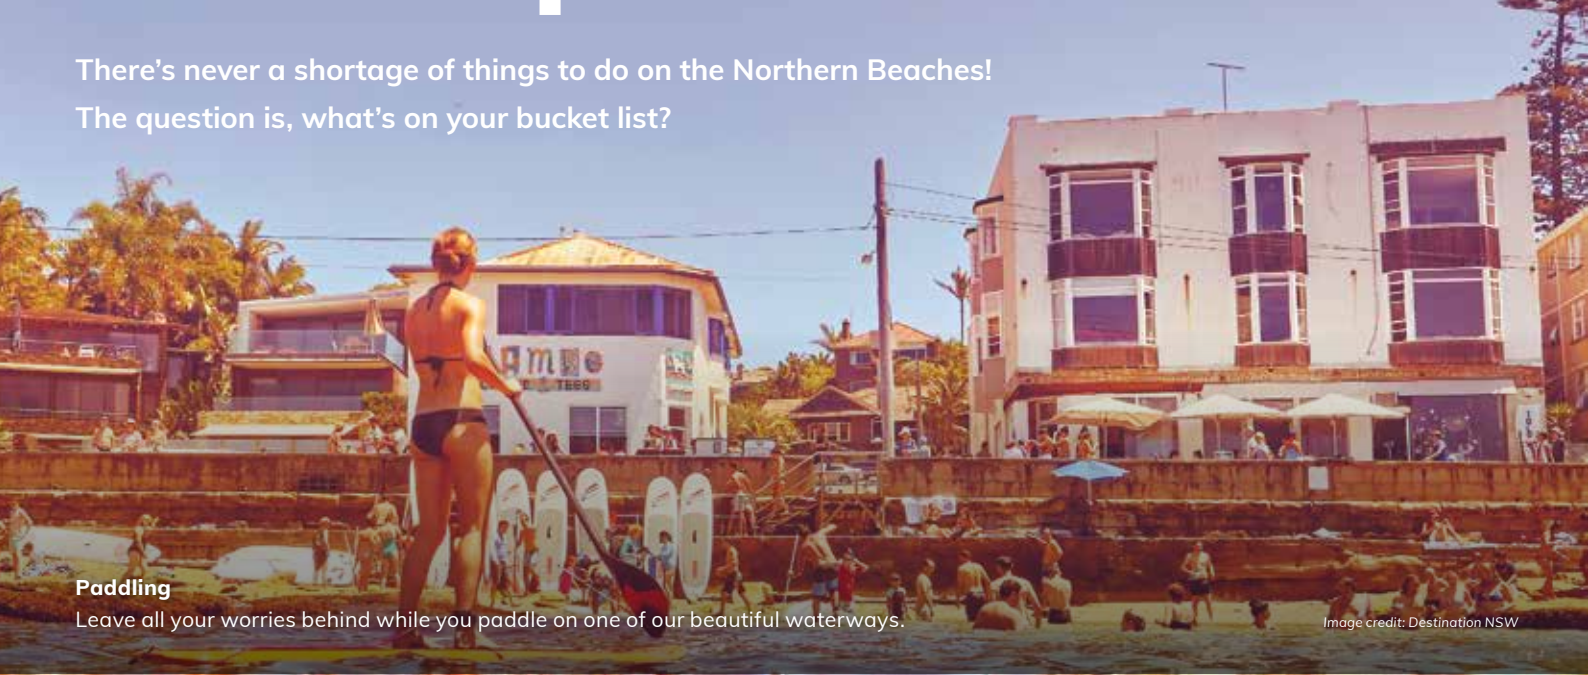

"There's no other organisation like it."

SLSNSW President, George Shales OAM said Doug was a very deserving recipient of state Life Membership.

"The commitment and dedication displayed by Doug has been recognised by SLSNSW and the elevation to Life Member is in absolute acknowledgment of the impact he has made to this organisation and many young future lifesavers, families and the community," he said.

Lauren Goldie

With a background in surf sports that dates back, almost literally, to the day she was born, Lauren Goldie of The Lakes SLSC is back again at the 2023 NSW Surf Life Saving Championships as an official. Her expertise, understanding and compassion are sure to make her an asset for the Age Championships weekend – if you see her in the Pink Water Area, be sure to say hello!

How did you get into Surf Life Saving?

My father was a member of Warriewood SLSC (a boatie) and enjoyed the lifestyle and wanted his children to have the same experience. I have been involved since I was five and haven't looked back.

You come from a family of Surf Lifesavers – what was that like?

My father, myself, my brother and sister – we are all involved, as are our partners and children. Our family loves to compete and it has been instilled in us from the beginning to give back to the community in some capacity and Surf Life Saving is what we know best.

What about State Champs makes it such a unique event to you?

I love State; it really brings it all together, showing all the hard work that has been put in over the season. It's great to meet up with all your other club mates from across NSW.

What was your favourite event as a competitor and why?

My favourite is the board and team events, there's nothing better than getting a win with your teammates.

What made you want to become an official?

Following in my father's footsteps across all levels, I have seen the great job that all the officials have done over the years and felt it was time to step up and help, while also understanding the other side. It's pretty simple – without officials, carnivals can't run.

Are there any challenges to officiating that might not be commonly known?

The biggest challenge is people forget we are all volunteers and are parents/grandparents who are giving up their time for this wonderful movement. Also, mother nature can create challenging conditions to contest with.

What is your goal when you're out there with the kids?

My goal is always to make everyone feel welcome and that it's not always about the win its about getting out there and having a go, building lifelong friendships whilst learning new things and most of all having fun!

SIASAT

Far from Run of the Mill

He's the golden boy from the South Coast, turning over sand on the sprint track and leaving most in his wake to watch, and after the floods brought Age Championships to a halt last year before he could hit the beach, Miller Siasat is gearing up for a big run at the 2023 NSW Surf Life Saving Championships, proudly supported by Your local club.

Along with his sister, Ginger – two years his junior – the Gerringong SLSC pair have been the king and queen of the beach at State Champs since their respective Under 10 seasons, with a combined nine of a possible ten Beach Flags and Beach Sprint events to their name.

Only Lachlan Byrnes of Mona Vale SLSC can attest to having ever pipped a Siasat to the post in that time, doing so in a dramatic U12 Sprint final two years ago at Redhead Beach.

While Ginger was able to do the double that's become so familiar with the family name in the early stages of Age Championships last year, Miller never even had the chance to hit the sand before extreme rainfall, hazardous surf and the need for volunteers to travel north for flood relief efforts brought an early end to the 2022 Championships.

Without the chance to right the wrongs of 2021 when he was upset in the Hunter, Miller's eyes are now firmly set on delivering in what will manifest as a 'take two' on the Northern Beaches.

"Obviously I'm looking forward to that," he said.

"I'm keen to get back on the sand and race against the boys, it's going to be a good year."

He will make the trip up the coast in white hot form, taking to the beach just under a month after claiming his fifth straight Country Championships Flags and Sprint double at Cape Hawke on the Lower North Coast.

His performance in the sprints, in particular, was a reminder of just how dominant he can be. Even under the beating sun and in near-30-degree temperatures, Miller barely broke a sweat across a series of heats, quarters, a semi and the final – crossing the line each time with a sizeable gap to second and an air of nonchalance that had nothing to do with ego and everything to do with the devastating athlete he has become.

That sunny Saturday in Cape Hawke at the end of January will serve as a platform to build from and a warning to those lining up beside him at State this year.

The Siasat's goal, no doubt, is to claim their two favourite events once again at Queenscliff beach, but Miller says the drive and support they feel from the club will make the 2023 NSW Surf Life Saving Championships a success no matter what.

"I moved to Gerringong and it's just such a big community there," he said.

"Everyone is there for each other, everyone supports each other, I just love running for them."

Sweepstakes High IN OPEN BOATS RIVALRY

Port Kembla SLSC's Open Male Surf Boat sweep, Jack Patison says the crew that handles the pressure best will finish with the spoils and the bragging rights when two of the country's best sweeps go head-to-head in a winner-takes-all tussle for a State Title at the 2023 NSW Surf Life Saving Championships.

Surf boats hit the water from 3-5 March at Queenscliff/Nth Steyne and while the depth of talent in NSW means no one team is a certainty to take the crown, all eyes will fall on the Open Male crews from Port Kembla and Bulli SLSC as legendary sweeps Jack Patison and Shane Geloven try to carve every inch of advantage out of the tricky Northern Beaches break.

The Illawarra feud dates back more than a decade and multiple clubs, with Jack having first built his friendly rivalry with Shane at Austinmer SLSC before being pulled out of retirement to sweep a little further down the coastline.

"I was retired for five years and they talked me into coming back," Jack said.

"We've done it with a couple of mates and we've all just clicked, we're getting better and better every week and the future is bright.

"I'll sweep for the Open Female crew as well and they'll be just as tough to beat come finals time. They're all handy rowers. We all are, really."

Handy doesn't tell half the tale – the Port Kembla crews have grown in strength and number since Jack returned, with crew numbers across Reserve, Open and Masters divisions having tripled.

The Open Men contested the Trans-Tasman Cup in New Zealand in early February as Australian reps – winning their series 3-0 – meaning their preparation has been strong leading into the NSW Championships.

Bulli, too, has had its fair share of training and competitive preparation; Shane's Open Male crew was part of the NSW team that competed for the Interstate Cup and then, as Bulli, took out the ASRL National Championship less than a week after the Port Kembla crew returned from overseas.

It's a rivalry that both are looking forward to continuing.

"As it goes for the State title, Bulli has pretty much owned it for a long time now and they're the ones to beat," Jack said.

"There's been a friendly rivalry there for a long time. They don't think it'll be easy to beat us and we're the same.

"That won't change and that's exciting, you wouldn't be a competitor if that didn't challenge you."

"We've had a great ding dong battle for many years now, and nothing has changed now that he's at Port Kembla," Shane agreed.

"Picking up another title, it's going to take you beating the best in the State; Australian crew in Port Kembla, they're one of the biggest targets, then there's South Curly and North Narra and plenty from Sydney that are always looking good.

"We'll take every year as a new year but we do have a nice record sitting behind us."

Bulli is the most recent champion of the Open Male event, doing so in 2021 at Swansea, and the crew is looking forward to another chance at bringing home a title.

"It's definitely high on our agenda of carnivals to win, it's nothing to slouch upon, a state title to your name," Shane said.

"It helps to have four of your best mates in the boat with you too."

For Jack, the Port Kembla boys know they'll need to be at their best come race day.

"My guys are very experienced and good under pressure, when you get to the pointy end of a State title there's pressure, we'll throw our hat in at the end and see what we can do," he said.

"I know our preparation will be important and we've been doing it for a long time."

State Champs Holds Special Place for IRON STAR

In her burgeoning career as an Ironwoman, Lizzie Welborn has done it all.

Well, nearly.

The 24-year-old, hot off a second-place finish at the six-leg Nutri Grain Iron Series which wrapped up in Queensland at the start of February, came into the season with a rare sense of uncertainty – something she hasn't experienced in nearly a decade.

"I had to come through the trials this year and I hadn't had to do that since I first made the series eight years ago," she said.

"It was a stranger pre-season so my whole focus was to make it through the trial and not think about the result of the series.

"After that first round I kind of realised I could do it.

"It was cool to go from not expecting to do much to competing for a title."

The first round she speaks of was an EnduroSurf format win on the opening weekend before Christmas – her second since joining the series, and her first in more than five years after her maiden triumph in Cronulla in 2017.

Newport SLSC clubmate, Jackson Borg picked up a round win on the same weekend at Manly, adding to an already impressive weekend for the NSW athletes.

It was a triumph that carried a significant amount of meaning for Lizzie, and another feather in her cap as she continues to blaze the trail for NSW-based competitors.

"It was great to show that you can be a professional Ironwoman and be from NSW," she said.

"We can train just as hard down here, and we can get it done just as well.

"I think it's important to show our young Nippers that you can be everything you want and do it from your home state."

The focus now shifts to the 2023 NSW Surf Life Saving Championships, proudly supported by Your local club, where Lizzie will have another chance to earn a title that she covets but is yet to have against her name – state Open Iron champion.

"I love State and I'll be doing all the events; Newport will be trying to win another Championship title and that's a massive motivator for us," she said.

"It's a big deal and I just love seeing everyone across the state in the one place; everyone here has the commonality of being from NSW.

"Personally, for me I have actually never won the Open Ironwoman at State Champs.

"Hopefully this is the year.

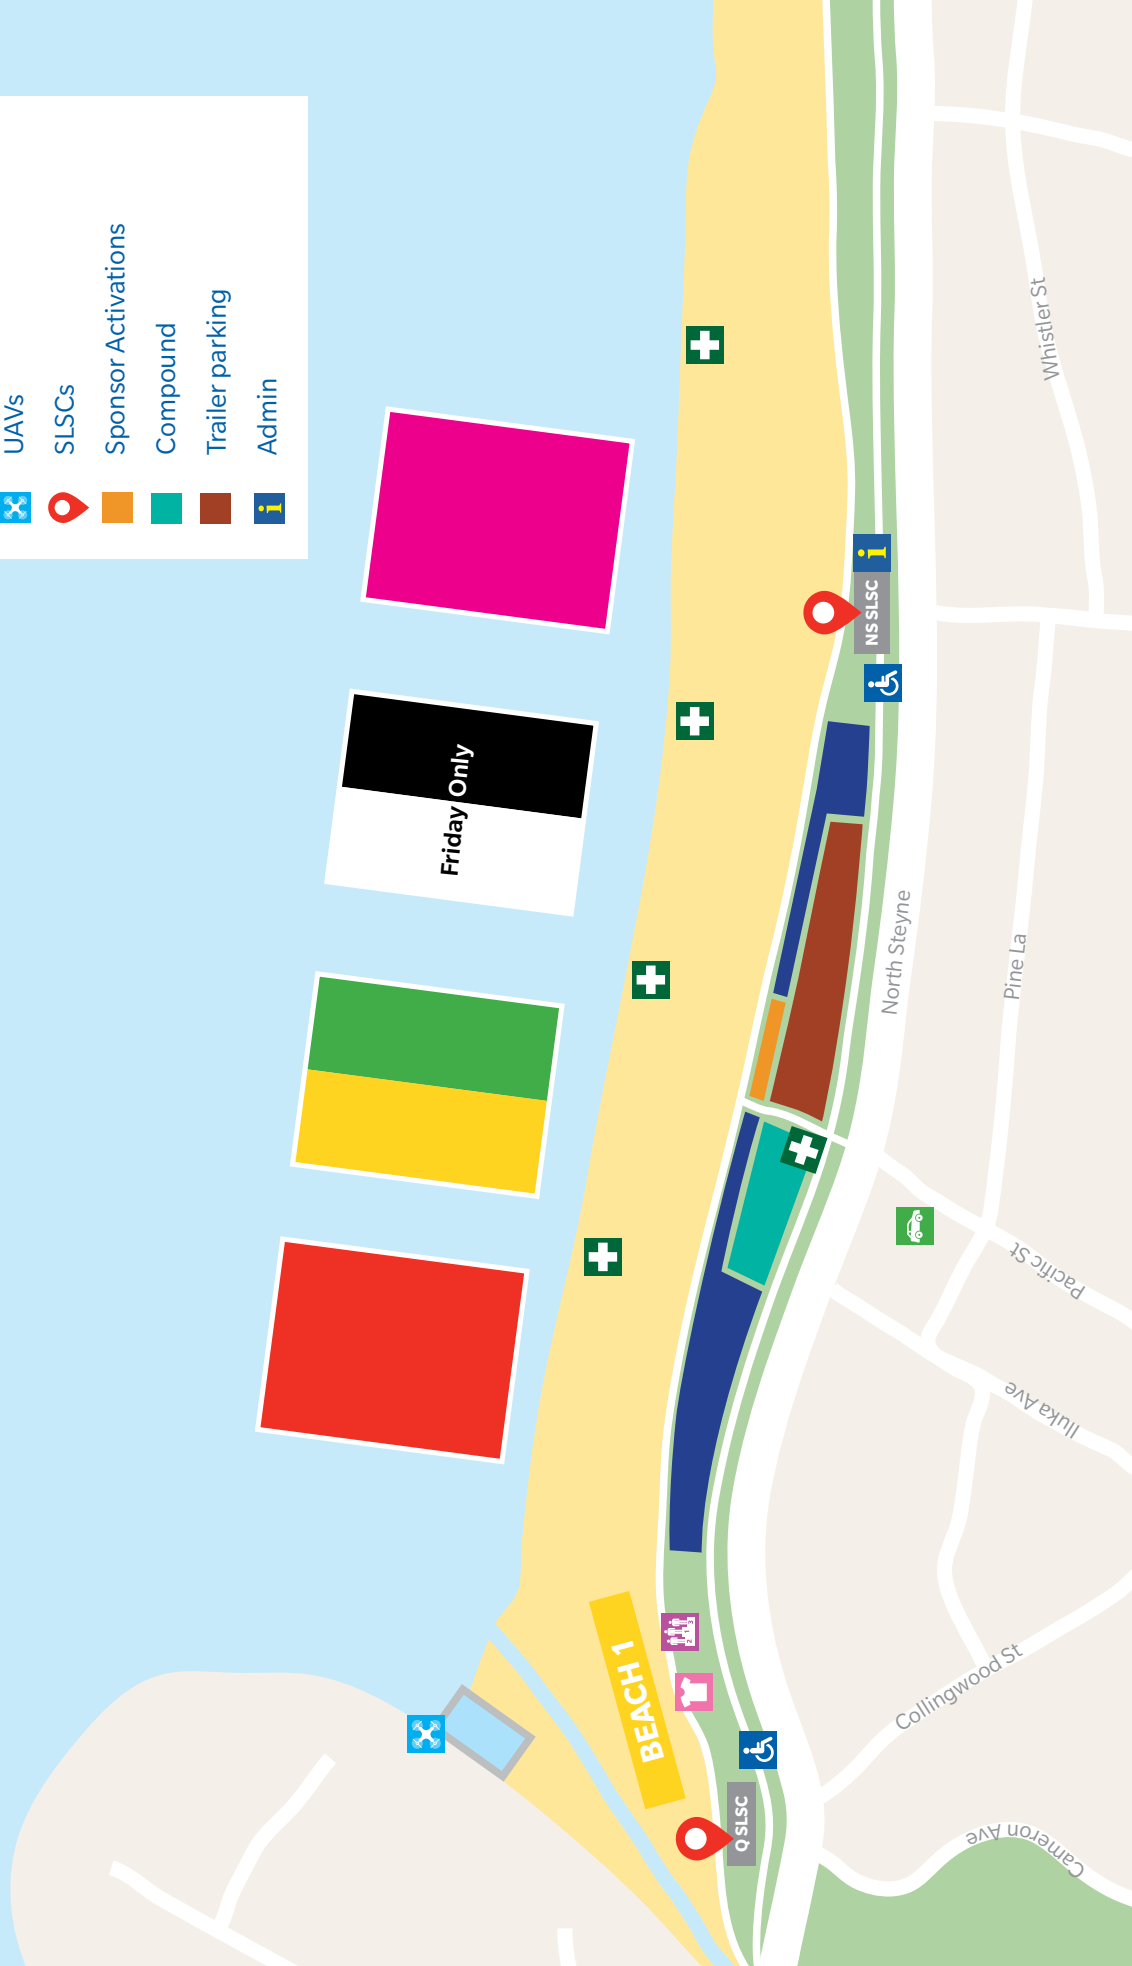

"When we go to State all the girls are passionate about it and everyone gives it their all.

"On the day every year there has always been someone that has raced better than me and it's great because it shows our depth as a state.

"Maybe I'm a bit nervous," she added, laughing.

LIFESAVERS WITH PRIDE

Come say hello to us at our stand at State Champs to find out more about what we're up to!

Lifesavers with Pride has been very busy over the past few months and is excited to welcome World Pride 2023 to Sydney! Clubs across NSW are getting behind the Rainbow Beaches initiative again, with many clubs holding their Rainbow Patrol over the last two weekends of February. Pride Boards have launched successfully nationwide and we're thrilled to see the uptake by clubs, and we have a wonderful exhibit currently showcasing at Manly Library for all of February and March.

2022 NSW Surf Life Saving Championships

Proudly supported by Your local club

The 2022 NSW Surf Life Saving Championships, proudly supported by Your local club made its way back to metropolitan Sydney for the first time in over 10 years. Unfortunately, severe weather conditions including a statewide flood emergency and back-to-back swell events significantly impacted our ability to safely run competition. Despite moving through the Nipper program in severe rain, the ensuing water conditions, degradation of the beaches (including contingency locations) and a reallocation of safety resources to the flood emergency made further competition impossible. SLSNSW is looking forward to returning to the Northern Beaches over the next two years with tremendous support from host clubs Queenscliff SLSC, Freshwater SLSC and North Steyne SLSC.

The challenges of the past two seasons have created an opportune time to reflect upon the current surf sport 'state of play' and seek to position surf sports as the first-choice coastal sport & recreation pursuit in NSW. SLSNSW engaged leading sport and entertainment consultancy, The Gemba Group, to lead the development of the inaugural Surf Sports Strategic Plan. Leveraging previously commissioned work, including a consumer research survey lead by D&M Research in 2019, Gemba, over the course of the season, conducted several member consultations and led a strategy workshop with the Surf Sport Standing Committee. SLSNSW proudly released the Surf Sport Re-Imagined strategy in late 2022, and it can be found on the organisation's website.
